Sensory Safari Trailer-Big Success!

Great Graphics
on the Trailer!

We set up October 10-12 at the grand opening for Field & Stream in Dayton. Friday it rained most of the day, Saturday and Sunday we had great weather. Tom Thomas, John Slewitzke, Jim Hayes, Jeff McIntire, Bryan Michael, and myself manned the trailer (with Tom there every day). Well over 5,500 people came through the exhibit.

See pictures at the following link:

We are still looking for taxidermy donations for the trailer. If you are interested in donating please email john@mvmmincorporated.com or call 513-563-2943.

Our Chapter Helps Maine Fight for Bear Hunting Rights

SCI Southwest Ohio Chapter donated $250 towards a campaign to save 3 of the most effective hunting methods of bear hunting in Maine. The Maine Wildlife Conservstion Council is struggling to maintain their hunting rights and are fighting the typical Washington DC lobbyists who have no understanding of how hunting supports wildlife and conservation efforts. A common problem all hunting organizations are fighting against.
