President's Message

Hello all,

We just finished another exceptional chapter fundraiser. Attendance and gross sales were up, which will allow us to do more for the programs we support. Thanks to all those who attended and all of the volunteers that helped run the event, especially our board members.

See you at the meeting,

President-Tom Thomas

Attendance Gun Raffle

Come to the meeting!...you need to be there to win it. Each time you came to a meeting, you received a chance for this gun. Winner will be drawn at the May meeting. Prize Gun is a Weatherby shotgun!

GUN SWAP AT THIS MONTH'S MEETING!

Bring any firearms or related "toys" to trade, swap or sell. This will be an informal opportunity to find something new or unload what you have.

Chapter Fundraiser APRIL 11, 2015

Record Attendance
...267!

Thanks to everyone who attended and made our fundraiser a success! Special thanks to Fiedelvey Family for donating the $5000 needed to build a 50 yard shooting range for the Warren County 4H Sharpe's Shooters at Hob Camp Nature Center in Lebanon, Ohio.

BALD EAGLE SHOOTING

OUR CHAPTER HAS POSTED A $300.00 REWARD FOR THE CONVICTION OF THE PERSON WHO SHOT A BALD EAGLE IN PREBLE COUNTY FEBRUARY 21st.

Kimberly Beard, educator from Mercer Elementary School (Forest Hills School District) will be attending AWLS this year thanks to our chapter sponsorship. Look for her to give a presentation in the fall regarding her trip.

Jim Hayes and John Stohlman are attending the Safari Club Leadership Training in June at AWLS Camp in Jackson WY. On the addenda is Chapter Management, Overview of Conservation Education and Humanitarian Programs , Fundraising, Applying for Grants, Intro to Sables, and Networking.

"WILDE"-SCIENCE CAMP FOR KIDS

SWOC to sponsor several children to attend science camp at The Wilds in Cambridge, Ohio this summer. If you are interested in more info, please contact Linda Bittner at: wildgraphicsstudio@yahoo.com Also visit the Wilds' website at: <https://thewilds.columbuszoo.org/>
